Nayya Health

At Nayya, they believe there's a better way to choose benefits. A more transparent, less confusing way for employees to control their health and financial potential. Powered by billions of data points and machine learning, their benefits experience platform delivers personalized decision support and guidance during open enrollment, new employee onboarding, qualifying life events, and in the moments that matter all year round. This is one of the most stressful and challenging situations consumers face – and Nayya Health sees that as an opportunity to build an innovative response that can help millions of Americans possess the control and understanding they deserve.
