Customer PROFILE

Nationwide Organ Transport Authority

NORA provides Air, Ground and Commercial Airline Courier transport services to the Organ Procurement Community. Their state-of-the-art dispatch center is the nucleus of the operation and brings together all the different resources and skills for seamless organ recovery transportation. By utilizing state of the art communications equipment, their field employees are always within reach. All the logistics for every transport will be arranged, followed, tracked, updated and once completed, and undergo a quality assurance review by our management team.
